

the guide

a guide to services for older and disabled people in Hackney

AGE
Concern

HACKNEY

the guide came into being as a result of the commitment of the Council for Older People. Age Concern Hackney thanks everyone who has contributed and all those who commented on drafts or responded to requests for information.

The information contained in the guide is correct at the time of publication. However, Age Concern Hackney recognises the speed with which services can change in the modern world and would welcome any comments, corrections and amendments to this material.

the guide is produced by the Council for Older People
